

Congress of the United States

Washington, DC 20515

July 18, 2022

An open letter to the business leaders of America:

On Friday, June 24, the Supreme Court voted to dismantle abortion access, and abortion will likely soon be banned in dozens of states. That means that in order to access legal abortion, people will have to travel many miles to get the health care they need.

As Members of Congress, we write to thank corporations that have pledged to support their workers who will need to travel out of state or long distances in state for abortion care. We encourage other businesses to follow this example.

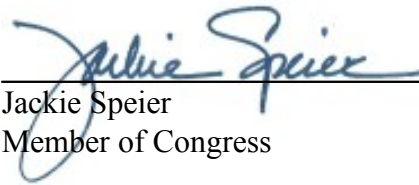

When people are able to control their own personal decisions and get the health care they need, including abortion care, they are able to plan for their futures and pursue their goals. This will mean workforces that are healthier and more diverse, productive, and equitable.

Once again, we thank those who have already pledged to facilitate legal access to abortion for their employees, and we hope others will follow this lead.

Sincerely,

Lois Frankel
